The chart displays the EURUSD pair on an H1 timeframe. The main panel shows candlestick price movement with several trade entries and exits marked. Green arrows labeled 'BUY' indicate entry points, while red arrows labeled 'EXIT' indicate exit points. A red arrow labeled 'NO SIGNAL' points to a period where the strategy did not generate a trade. The volume panel below the price chart shows blue bars for positive volume and red bars for negative volume. The CCI(14) indicator is shown at the bottom, with a red line representing the CCI value. A red arrow labeled 'NOT CONFIRMED CCI > 0' points to a period where the CCI indicator did not confirm the strategy's signal.
